

Teacher Registration Steps for Homeschool

Introduction

Welcome! Now that you have your administrator login, you can use the instructions outlined in this document to register for your teacher account and then begin using your digital curriculum. Contrary to brick and mortar schools and districts in which many different people might fulfill different roles, Homeschools may have one person fulfilling many different roles, acting as both the administrator and the teacher. These instructions assume you are both the administrator for your Homeschool as well as the teacher. Follow the instructions in this handout to register yourself as a teacher, as well as others who are teachers within your Homeschool.
